Focus on what you do best.

Let us take care of the financial management.

E4C's Financial Management Program offers human service agencies professional financial services at a reduced rate, allowing you to put the savings toward your organization's core mission.

Financial Management Services offered:

- Bank reconciliation
- Cash flow analysis
- Audit assistance
- Accounts payable
- Funding partner reporting
- Accurate & timely reporting
- Improved governance & planning
- Invoicing & accounts receivable
- Payroll & benefits management
- Budget preparation & analysis
- Statutory remittances & reporting

Filling the gap between the need for quality professional financial services and the cost of such services for charities.

Eligible agencies should:

- be a local registered charity providing human services
- have an organizational leadership committed to participation
- receive or be eligible for FCSS funding

E4C's Financial Management Program is an innovative shared services initiative involving the Province of Alberta, the City of Edmonton, the United Way of the Alberta Capital Region, Edmonton Community Foundation and E4C.

Please contact us to discuss your organization's specific needs.
