McCauley Apartments

Supporting Individual and Community Growth

Changing Lives • Growing Community

What is the McCauley Apartments program?

McCauley Apartments fosters an interdependent housing model where residents are encouraged to become active contributing members of their community. Each resident is met at their respective starting point and are provided with individualized support based on their goals and needs. Its long-term housing program provides safe, affordable housing that is supplemented with support that will help residents become accepted members of their neighbourhood.

McCauley Apartments has 37 two-bedroom suites with one additional suite used as the office for tenant support. The office is open to tenants for socializing four hours a day, five days a week.

One third of the suites are designated for persons with low income while the remaining two thirds are designated for persons with a history of mental illness. McCauley Apartments is a partnership between E4C and Capital Region Housing Corporation.

McCauley Apartments hosts and engages in various volunteer activities and creates community development initiatives.

Major activities include:

Some of the programs we are involved in have seasonal activities such as the Inner City Barbecue, McCauley Community Clean Up, the Family Day Skating Party, and Learn to Skate programs for neighborhood kids. We also participate in regularly scheduled activities such as coordinating the city centre depot for the Wecan Food Basket Society, free community guitar lessons, Sunday games day, and free Karate classes for both adults and children.

Volunteering

McCauley Apartment residents volunteer numerous hours in many forms. Also, several residents are volunteer paper carriers for the Boyle McCauley News and deliver papers door-to-door monthly.
